

COMPANY PROFILES: LAUDERDAL DIVER

Lauderdale Diver is a leading, full service dive shop located on 17th Street in Fort Lauderdale and is conveniently located near many shipyards, marinas and other marine vendors. We offer all levels of diver training and a comprehensive range of diving equipment and service support. Lauderdale Diver has been servicing the yachting community both locally and globally since 1978 and has a reputation of trust and reliability.

Lauderdale Diver is a PADI 5 Star Certification Agency, the most respected and sought after diver training organization in the world. Whether a beginner or advanced diver, we offer both local daily dive and snorkeling trips, customized to your certification and comfort level, to a variety of the ocean's most treasured sites.

Lauderdale Diver is the premiere yacht outfitting specialist for scuba, snorkeling, spearfishing and freediving equipment and is also a distributor for Nitrox Solutions Air/Nitrox Compressor Systems. Lauderdale Diver's owners, Len and Chrissy Beck, have been working in the yachting industry for over 23 years. Len and Chrissy have worked on vessels that have been diving throughout the world and have used this experience to create a full service shop that truly understands the full needs of both the yachting and diving consumers.
